Details of how to opt-in or to opt-out of receiving newsletters and details of offers are included in the electronic message you receive.

Preferences / Subscribe / Unsubscribe

You and any other person whose information you have provided to us can change your/their mind about whether you wish to receive details at any time by using any of the methods shown below (see the section 'How to contact us' below) or by following the instructions they receive.

Security

We take the security of personal information seriously. We employ security technology, including firewalls to safeguard information and have procedures in place to ensure that our paper and computer systems and databases are protected against unauthorised disclosure, use, loss and damage.

We only use third party service providers where we are satisfied that they provide adequate security for your personal data.

Data Retention

We will normally keep your personal data for 10 years. If, after this point, you have not taken up any further services, we will keep only minimal personal data. We expect to contact you at least every 2 years to ensure you are still happy to hear from us according to the preferences you have provided to us.

Use of your information outside of Europe

We do not currently transfer personal data outside of the United Kingdom or the European Economic Area. If this changes and we do need to transfer your personal data to other territories, we will take proper steps to ensure that it is protected in accordance with this Privacy Policy and applicable privacy laws.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

Privacy laws and practice are constantly developing and we aim to meet high standards. Our policies and procedures are, therefore, under continual review. We may, from time to time, update our security and privacy policies. If we want to make any significant changes in how we will use your personal data we will contact you directly and, if required, seek your consent.

Updating and Correcting Information

You may update or correct your personal information by contacting us in writing or by email (see the section 'How to contact us' below). Please include your name, address and/or email address when you contact us as this helps us to ensure that we accept amendments only from the correct person. We encourage you to promptly update your personal information if it changes. If you are providing updates or corrections about another person, we may require you to provide us with proof that you are authorised to provide that information to us.

Your rights

You have a number of legal rights in respect of your personal data. These include:

- access. The right to receive a copy of the personal data that we hold about you.
- withdraw consent to direct marketing. You can exercise this right at any time and can update your preferences yourself or ask us to do it for you. See section 'Updating and correcting your personal data' above for details.
- withdraw consent to other processing. Where the only legal basis for our processing your personal data is that we have your consent to do so, you may withdraw your consent to that processing at any time and we will have to stop processing your personal data. Please note, this will only affect a new activity and does not mean that processing carried out before you withdrew your consent is unlawful.

- rectification. If you consider any of your personal data is inaccurate, you can correct it yourself or ask us to do it for you (see section 'Updating and correcting your personal data' above for details).
- restriction. In limited circumstances you may be able to require us to restrict our processing of your personal data. For example, if you consider what we hold is inaccurate and we disagree, the processing may be restricted until the accuracy has been verified.
